23 Defendants.

Case No. 2:19-cv-1383-GMN-DJA

STIPULATION AND ORDER FOR STAY
OF PROCEEDINGS AND MOTION
PRACTICE PENDING JOINT FILING BY PARTIES

24 Each of the parties to this action, through their respective counsel, stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss became fully briefed on August 20, 2021 and remains pending before this Court. See Dkts. No. 23, 25, 26.

2. Defendants filed a Motion For Leave to Provide Supplemental Authority on June 13, 2022. See Dkt. No. 29.

3. Plaintiffs' opposition to the Motion For Leave to Provide Supplemental Authority is due on June 27, 2022. See L.R. 7-2(b).

4. Counsel for both parties have since met and conferred and are in the process of reviewing the new U.S. Supreme Court decision, Patel v. Garland, 596 U.S. ____ (2022) and fully assessing their positions.

5. Counsel for both parties expect to continue to meet and confer and to prepare and file a joint filing with this Court on the impact of Patel, if any, to avoid inundating this Court with additional motion practice or extensions to motion deadlines. The parties propose to file their joint filing no later than July 27, 2022.

6. Based on the foregoing, the parties jointly request that this civil action and the currently pending motion practice be stayed until July 27, 2022, or until a joint filing regarding the Patel decision is filed with this Court, whichever occurs sooner.
